

1. Applicability of Terms of Service. The parties agree that the terms of service presented by Company as part of the registration process for Institution's users of the Products shall not apply to the Institution and its users that are its employees, notwithstanding any employee's acceptance of such terms as part of the registration process nor any provision to the contrary in such terms of service as they may change from time to time.