OTHER INFORMATION, ASSISTANCE AND SUPPORT

There are many sources of information, assistance and support at the University and in the community.

Seeking Ongoing Confidential Counseling

At the University, confidential support is available through FEAP (434) 243-2643, the Women’s Center (434) 982-2252, and at University Medical Associates (434) 924-1931 or UVA Health System General Gynecology (434) 924-1955 or (800) 251-1841.

In the Charlottesville Community, confidential support is available through SARA (434) 977-7273 and SHE (434) 293-8509. Detailed contact information and a list of other sources of confidential support is contained in the Resource Guide for Employees (eocr.virginia.edu/appendixd).

Seeking Remedial and Protective Measures

University Measures: The UVA Office for Equal Opportunity and Civil Rights (EOCR) can arrange a broad range of protective and remedial measures, including (1) a “No-Contact Directive,” which is enforceable through relevant disciplinary procedures, and (2) appropriate and available university employment modifications. Information you share with EOCR/Title IX will be evaluated to assess individual and community safety consistent with UNIVERSITY OBLIGATIONS outlined below. Remedial measures are available regardless of whether an employee pursues a report or investigation under the Policy. The Resource Guide for Employees (eocr.virginia.edu/appendixd) describes such measures in detail.

Judicial Protective Orders: Where there is an immediate threat to health or safety, it may also be possible to obtain a judicial protective order. The University Police can provide information and assistance in filing for a protective order.

REPORTING OPTIONS

You may report to the police and/or to the University.

University Report

You may report to the University through its reporting website, Just Report It (justreportit.virginia.edu) or by contacting the University’s Title IX Coordinator, directly at (434) 297-7988 or titleixcoordinator@virginia.edu.

You may also pursue University resolution under the Sexual Misconduct Policy. The standard of proof under the Sexual Misconduct Policy is a “preponderance of the evidence,” and sanctions may include disciplinary action up to and including suspension, expulsion or termination of employment.

Police Report

You may report to the police directly or you may request assistance from EOCR about how to report to the police. The criminal process is governed by applicable criminal statutes; the standard of proof is “beyond a reasonable doubt,” and sanctions may include all applicable criminal penalties.

Anonymous Report

You may report anonymously by contacting a confidential resource or anonymously contacting the Title IX Coordinator. However, the University’s ability to respond to an anonymous report may be limited.

UNIVERSITY OBLIGATIONS

Once a report of Prohibited Conduct is received, the University will conduct an initial assessment, a threat assessment, and take any immediate action that may be necessary to protect the health and safety of individuals and the University community. Depending on the nature and severity of the conduct reported, the University may be required to share all known information, including names, with law enforcement. The University is committed to protecting the safety of the broader University community, which includes reporting crime statistics and, in some cases, issuing incident notifications in accordance with federal law. Most University employees – “Responsible Employees” – are required to report any knowledge of an incident of sexual or gender-based violence or harassment to the University’s Title IX Coordinator within 24 hours. Licensed clinical health and mental health care providers are considered confidential resources and will not report Prohibited Conduct to the University’s Title IX Coordinator.
